Sri Ramakrishna Student's Home, Viswaswarapuram, Bangalore city. In his letter dated 3/12/43 to the M.C., the Donor has mentioned that he has so far endowed Rs 25,000/- in addition to the sum of Rs 2000/- given for the Sri Anjaneyaswami Temple at Ramakrishnapur village, for the use of the temple, and that he has given 30 acres of land for the temple. In this consideration viz that he has endowed this extent of 30 acres of land to augment the endowment made to the temple, the Donor desires that the sum of Rs 8000/- previously given to the temple may now be transferred to the Sri Ramakrishna Students' Home for the maintenance of Students. A

(2) In accordance with para 2 of the G.O. dated 23/12/41, the interest on the endowment of Rs 8000/- is payable to the donor during his life time, and afterwards by his wife during her lifetime for their benefit and thereafter the interest has to be drawn by the M.C. for being utilised for the benefit of the intended purpose as per G.O. referred to above.

(3) The Donor (Mr. Venkataramanaiya) has admitted that he has already claimed the interest on the sum of Rs 8000/- up to the end of June 1943 and has requested that from 1st July 1943 onwards, the interest on this amount might be paid to the Secretary of the Sri Ramakrishna Home. He has added that he and his wife would continue to draw the interest on the balance of the endowment during their lifetime, the interest being drawn thereafter by the Mo as per G O

Subject:- Diversion of the object of the endowment of Rs.8,000/- offered by Mr.G.Venkatarathnaiya, Pleader and Jodidar, Ramakrishna Vilas, Ganigarpet, Bangalore City.

Sir,

I have the honour to invite kind reference to G.O.No.115-7/Muz.311-32-4, dated 2nd August 1933, accepting the endowment of Rs.8,000/- offered by Mr.G.Venkatarathnaiya, in the shape of 6½ % S.F.Bonds for the benefit of Sri Anjaneyaswami temple at Ramakrishnapur, Anekal Taluk.

After the maturity of the 6½ % State Loan Bonds on 30th September 1940, the proceeds were invested in Cheritable deposits with effect from 1st October 1940, as desired by the donor and the same was accepted as a Charitable endowment in favour of the temple, in this office Order No.M4-2408/43-44, dated 16th January 1944 (copy enclosed).

Mr.G.Venkatarathnaiya, in his petition dated 8th December 1943, (copy enclosed) prays that his endowment of Rs.8,000/- may be diverted in favour of Sri Venkateswara Students' Home, Visveswarapuram, Bangalore City, for the benefit of the students, in view of the fact that the said Home owns about 30 acres of land in addition to the Sri Venkateswara aggregating to Rs.2,600/- in favour of the temple. He also desires that the interest on the above endowment of Rs.8000, from 1st July 1943, onwards may be permitted to be drawn by the Secretary of the Students' Home. He has drawn interest ~~on~~ on the endowment himself to the end of 1942-43.

In the circumstances, I request that sanction of Government may be kindly obtained to the donor's request.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

M. N. Dandavate

Asst. Mazrai Commissioner to Govt.

Letter dated 3-12-43, from Mr.G.Venkataramanaiya, Pleader, Ganigarapet Bangalore City, to the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore.

I beg to state that I have so far made an endowment of Rs.25,000/- in addition to the sum of Rs.2,000/- endowed to the Sri Anjaneya Temple, Ramakrishnapur village for the use of the temple, and for the purpose of imparting Horticultural Instruction, training of Archaks of minor temples, compost making etc, (vide correspondence ending with Government Order No.P.3549-55/G.G.74-415 dated 20th Nov'42 and your subsequent order accepting Rs.600/- in July 1943. In addition to this, I have also given some lands in the village to the extent of about 30 acres for the temple to augment the above endowment. The interest on these endowments is bein paid to me and my wife Srimathi Ammannamma during our life time for our maintenance and a portion of the interest on the amount alloted for the Horticultural school is ordered to be utilised for starting the Instruction immediately. So far, no class is started. In consideration of the fact that lands are now added on to the temple I wish to transfer a sum of Rs.8,000/- previously given to the temple referred to in your order No.C.2257 dated 23rd Dec'41 to the Sri Ramakrishna Students Home, Visveswarapura, Bangalore City, for the maintenance of the Students . The ~~yield~~ yielded on the balance of the amount and the lands will be more than sufficient for the temple and for the Horticultural Instruction scheme. The Home shall maintain one or two students undergoing Horticultural Instruction in the Horticulture School at Lalbagh, if they are otherwise eligible for admission into the Home.

I request you to kindly accord sanction for the transfer of this portion of Rs.8000/- of the endowment to the Sri Ramakrishna Students' Home, Bangalore City. I have claimed the interest on this amount upto the end of June 1943 and the interest from 1st July 1943, onwards may kindly be ordered to be paid to the Secretary of the Home.

Myself or my wife will continue to draw the interest on the balance of the endowment during our life time and thereafter by you as ordered. Details of the lands allotte will be furnished later on.
